Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Daily Times.

ALBANY, Saturday, March 22, 1856.

In the Assembly, among the petitions presented, were one for a Steamboat Railroad, and numerous petitions against the passage of the bill repealing the duties of Port Wardens in New-York City.

The bill authorizing the Brooklyn Institute to locate their new reservoir on Prospect Hill, and removing the restrictions from the Navy Agent, was reported favorably from the Senate Committee.

Mr. Stow gave notice of a bill to amend the act relative to the Fourth Avenue Railroad.

Mr. Clark called up his resolution providing that the Legislature adjourn sine die on the 9th of April, at 10 P. M., which was passed.

THE STATE TAX.

The Senate, in Committee of the Whole, had under consideration the bill to provide means for the support of Government. The question pending was the motion of Mr. RICHARDSON to increase the State tax to one and a quarter mills. After a somewhat spicy debate, the Committee reported progress on the same, when

Mr. MASSON offered the following:

Resolved, That the Comptroller be requested at as early a day as possible to inform the Senate whether, in his judgment, a mill tax will yield a sufficient sum to meet the expenditures of the State Government for the present fiscal year.

At the request of Mr. BROOKS the resolution was laid on the table, to allow him to prepare an amendment. After some time the resolution was taken from the table, and Mr. BROOKS moved an amendment.

And that the Comptroller be requested further to inform the Senate, whether, in his judgment, a mill tax will, in addition, enable the State to appropriate the necessary sums for the completion of the public institutions supported by the State; and for the erection of any new buildings, or to pay the indebtedness of the Commissioners of Emigration, or any portion thereof.

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 12 to 9, and the resolution as amended was adopted.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The bill relating to the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of New-York was ordered engrossed for a third reading.

The remainder of the session was mainly spent in the discussion of claim bills in Committee of the Whole.

CHEERFUL PROSPECT.

In talking with a dealer in broadstuffs, resident in the West, he expressed the opinion that during the coming Summer the price of flour would rule as low as $5 per barrel. Is not this something to be grateful over?

RANDOM RAMBLES.

The Hindoo Council to which MARKHAM, of the Sentinel, belonged, has by a series of resolutions voted him out of State boarding-houses; that hereafter he may eat his corned beef with the bibs.

SENATE.

In the Senate, Mr. ANDERSON presented the petition of the Madison-street Presbyterian Church to change their name to the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Also, the petition of certain citizens of the City of New-York, for an act of incorporation for a Literary and Theological Institution, to be located at Canandaigua, N. Y. The petitioners state that they belong to the denomination of Christians known as Universalists, that they desire to thoroughly understand, in good faith, the part of Scripture, which they have every reason to believe will be misunderstood during the present generation, and that as they cannot do this in a first-class institution, under the name and title of the St. Lawrence University, they ask for an act of incorporation, to enable them the more effectually to carry out their intentions.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. J. A. SMITH, from Committee on Division of Towns and Counties, reported a bill to erect the County of Hamilton from parts of Otsego, Chenango and Fulton Counties. The proposed new County, as organized, contains the towns of Macsonville, Sidney and Franklin, and parts of the towns of Walton and Treadwell in Delaware County; Bainbridge and part of the town of Guilford in Chenango County, and Unadilla, Otego, Oneonta, Butternuts and Morris in Otsego County.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. UPHAM introduced the following to amend the laws relative to Banking:

Sec. 1. It shall not be lawful for any bank, banking association, or individual banker, or other person or persons, directly or indirectly, to receive or hoard up, or assist in receiving or hoarding up, the circulating notes of any bank, banking association or individual banker, for the purpose of requiring or compelling any bank, banking association or individual banker, for the purpose of requiring or compelling any such bank, banking association or individual banker, or any other person or persons, who shall be guilty of directly or indirectly receiving or hoarding up, or assisting in receiving or hoarding up, the circulating notes of any bank, banking association or individual banker, for the purpose of requiring or compelling any bank, banking association or individual banker, or any other person or persons, who shall be convicted of so receiving or hoarding up, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. Any banking association, bank, individual banker, or other person or persons, who shall be guilty of directly or indirectly refusing or declining to pay, or assisting in refusing or declining to pay, the circulating notes of any bank, banking association or individual banker, for the purpose of requiring or compelling any bank, banking association, or individual banker, to pay the same in gold or silver coin, or in any other funds than the law requires, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction of such offence, shall be fined one thousand dollars for each offence; and any bank, banking association or individual banker, so convicted, shall forfeit his or their banking privileges; and the Superintendent of the Bank Department shall or may proceed to have such bank, banking association, or individual banker, closed, and may take possession of the property and effects of such bank, banking association or individual banker, and proceed with the same as is provided by law in case of insolvency.

Mr. UPHAM introduced a bill to amend the act to authorize the construction of a rail road from the Atlantic ocean into Great South Bay, in the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk County.

STATE INSPECTORS.

Bills were introduced, by Mr. GLOVER, to repeal the act providing for the creation of Schuyler County. By Mr. E. SMITH, for the relief of GEORGE B. WOODWARD, sergeant-at-arms, appropriating two thousand dollars, in view of the injuries received by him in the discharge of his duties, at the recent accident on the Hudson River Railroad. The bill was referred to a Select Committee composed of Messrs. E. SMITH, SCHUYLER, THOMPSON, MATTESON and LEE.

ADJOURNMENT.

A resolution was adopted changing the hour of meeting to 9½ A. M. Also, the final adjournment on the 9th of April, at 10 P. M.

Mr. GLOVER proposed instituting the action of the Joint Committee of last session to examine into the affairs of the Police of New-York, by calling for a report at once. The resolution lies over.

BILLS AND NOTES.

A resolution was adopted inviting the officers of the State Institutions, &c. on Wed and Thursday to bring a portion of their pupils to this city, and all Superintendents, Principals, &c. interested in other institutions, were requested to attend the Assembly Chamber to that end on that evening at the hour above named.

A long debate was held upon Mr. PRATT'S resolution for the appointment of a Committee of three to examine the contracts awarded lately, by the State Prison Inspectors, with CHARLES WARNER, and to report as to the interest of any of the Inspectors therein. After a free discussion of opinion the resolution was lost: Ayes, 15; Noes, 45.

The House then adjourned to Monday, at 10½ A. M.

SENATE.

In the Senate, Mr. ANDERSON presented the petition of the Madison-street Presbyterian Church to change their name to the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Also, the petition of certain citizens of the City of New-York, for an act of incorporation for a Literary and Theological Institution, to be located at Canandaigua, N. Y. The Kansas Investigating Committee—Its Composition—Repeated Action of Brown and his Friends.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, March 23.

The Kansas Investigating Committee will be announced to-morrow. Mr. DUNN certainly will not be a member. As the question is peculiarly a Western one, and the Committee will have to deal chiefly with Western people, it is now believed that the three members will doubtless be Western men. As the Democrats very generally recommend OLIVER, of Missouri, he will probably be appointed. The remaining two will be earnest Anti-Nebraska men, such as HOWARD, of Michigan, who is spoken of very decidedly to-night.

There are rumors that if DUNN is not appointed himself and half a dozen friends will make a row to-morrow, uniting with the Administration men and the South Americans in some way scheme to embarrass the investigation. If they choose to assume such responsibility, our true men will not be distressed.

The Nicaragua Transit Company and the Government—The Kansas Committee—Mr. Buchanan.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 22.

MESSRS. WELLS and VANDERBILT were closeted with Attorney-General CUSHING for some time to-day, and were urging our Government to aid them in their difficulties with Gen. WALKER. Mr. MARCY, on a previous occasion, peremptorily refused to do anything, and Mr. CUSHING stated to them in plain terms to-day that they could expect nothing from our Government. It appears the subject has been before the Cabinet. The Administration are of opinion that WELLS and VANDERBILT aided and countived at filibustering expeditions to Nicaragua; therefore they have no sympathy with them, and are determined not to interfere.

There is a tremendous pressure on Speaker BANKS in reference to the appointment of Commissioners to go to Kansas. Mr. DUNN's friends are urging him with great vehemence, while, on the other hand, some of the Northern Republicans are doing every thing in their power to defeat him. The announcement will not be made until Monday. Governor REEDER left to-day for his home at Easton, and will go from thence early next week to Kansas, with the Commissioners. The Kansas Free State Constitution arrived here to-day, and was put into the hands of General CASS. He will present it to the Senate on Monday.

Letters have been received from Mr. BUCHANAN announcing his intention to leave Rome in the Arago on the 9th of April.

Runaway of Governor Geary—The Missouri Question—A Chapter of Indian Atrocities—Business Matters.

Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 22, 1856.

My last letter was already so long that I had no room to apprise you of the fact that Mr. BUCHANAN escaped the serious dangers impending over him upon the occasion of his "great speech" on the Kansas question, which were pre-heralded by its delivery began. I do not know what were the influences which induced the violent and belligerent Senators SEWARD, FOOT and CRAFTON to abandon their cherished scheme of slaying "Jack the giant killer" on the floor of the Senate, and taking the life of the dreaded Illinoisan; but I think it quite possible that they received some inkling of the fact that he had determined to blow himself up, and so concluded that there was no necessity of using the bludgeons, spears and hatchets. This dreadful act of felo-de-se perpetrated by the Senator from Illinois is thus graphically described in the Union's leader of yesterday morning:

NOW IT WAS RETORTED,

"Judge DOUGLAS had shown, by the official acts of Governor Reeder, that the Legislature of Kansas was a valid Legislative body, and that its acts as such must be regarded as valid laws."

Yes,—that's it, exactly. The entire argument of "Judge DOUGLAS" rested upon the absurd proposition that "the official acts of Governor REEDER" settle the question of the validity of the Kansas Legislature, and that Congress has nothing to say upon that point.

A TEST OF THE ARGUMENT.

If Gov. REEDER had called out the militia of the Territory, stationed it by companies at the various polls, and told the officers in command to disturb the Inspectors in examining every vote before it should be cast, receiving all the ballots for the Free-Slavery candidates, and rejecting all offered for their opponents,—if these orders had been executed, and the Governor had issued certificates of election to those individuals returned by the Inspectors, and had then recognized a Legislature thus chosen by sending it a message or two, vetoing some of its acts and disapproving others,—if all this had been done, "the official acts of Gov. REEDER" would have established the fact that "the Legislature of Kansas was a valid legislative body, and that its acts as such must be regarded as valid laws,"—especially if the Legislature should vote itself valid! And this is the logic of "Judge DOUGLAS" and the Union. I think we can afford to let the Judge live a little longer.

A CHAPTER OF INFAMY.

The friends of J. G. MCDUFFIE, recently appointed United States Marshal of the Southern District of California, say, exultingly, that the President does not intend to remove him, notwithstanding the representations made to him of his unfitness for the place. It is alleged, and not denied by his friends, that MCDUFFIE was formerly a professional gambler in California, keeping a "hell" in partnership with CORA, who murdered the late United States Marshal RICHARDSON, thus creating the very vacancy which his partner, MCDUFFIE, now fills. These two men were engaged in their disreputable calling with a third gambler, named VAN RIPER. Immediately after the death of the late Marshal RICHARDSON by the hand of CORA, MCDUFFIE started for Washington to get the place, and succeeded—by what means, it is unnecessary to inquire. During his absence, the trial of CORA, for the murder, came on—and it appeared that the third partner of the precious trio, while one was absent to get the place made vacant by the heartless violence of the second—was engaged in hunting up or manufacturing evidence to save the homicide from the just penalty of his crime. And in this labor he was the active cooperator of a notorious woman known as "BELLE CORA," the paramour of the murderer, and sister of an equally abandoned female, whose "friend" and protector for the time being, was this same MCDUFFIE. Was ever a set of men bound together by more infamous ties?

THE FINAL SCENE IN THE TRAGEDY.

As soon as the appointment of MCDUFFIE reached California, it excited intense feeling, and the foregoing facts were boldly stated by the independent portion of the Press, who denounced the new Marshal in terms neither measured nor moderate. Everybody took it for granted that the President had been misposed upon—that he knew nothing of MCDUFFIE'S character, and that he would remove him because of exposure of the facts. All went on in the usual channel in California. They were wrong, for nothing is more certain that the President knew perfectly the antecedents of the character. He was not the only applicant for the place; and does anybody believe that among those who were on the spot pressing their own superior claims, there were none who suggested to the Executive the past life of MCDUFFIE in evidence of his disqualification? But he was appointed, and his nomination was hurriedly sent in to the Senate, and confirmed in equal haste. And now, when the subject is again pressed upon the President's attention, the indignant protests of the outraged citizens of California, seem to produce no response in his breast. If it can be shown that MCDUFFIE is now a gambler he will turn him out; if not, reputation for respectability is of no consequence in the chief executive officer of the California Judiciary; and if MCDUFFIE, during that gambling days, was as well as the Marshal, did choose to abandon wasted cards, the dice or the faro bank, for the less and dignity of office, why, the honest people of his district must grin and bear it, and MAY must hold his plate until some may have to offer. Meanwhile, the scaffold, and a few yards of rope hereof. Then let a great constitutional Executive, Franklin Pierce, be President—and Judge DOUGLAS, according to the estimation of a Democratic Senate, beyond all doubt. He dare not recall his nomination of MCDUFFIE, unless goaded to it by the indignant remonstrance of the People whom he has thus outraged and insulted. A Presidential Convention is assembles, and the vote of the California gentlemen is wanted.

AGAIN ATTRACTS NO QUALIFICATION.

MORE DESIRABLE OFFICE

SUBSCRIBER.

Mr. BUCHANAN has written to this city that he has completed his journey Eastward to the United States by the 1st of April, as was his intention a month ago, upon the arrival here of Mr. DALLAS, would immediately depart for a brief sojourn on the Continent, and sail for the United States on or about the 9th proximo. His political friends await his arrival with a great deal of interest.

Murder at Camden, N. J.—The Ferry-Boat Disaster.

PHILADELPHIA, Sunday, March 23.

Mr. WILLIAM J. HATCH, a member of the Camden Common Council, was shot this morning by a party of prisoners, whom he had ordered to leave his premises at Cooper's Point. The murderers were arrested and committed.

The body of EDWARD MERCHANT, formerly conductor on the Camden and Amboy Railroad, was found in the Delaware to-day—making thirty-one bodies that have been recovered.

Launch of the Minnehaha.

BOSTON, Saturday, March 22.

The new three deck ship, of 1,900 tons, named Minnehaha, was successfully launched from the yard of her builder, DONALD MCKAY, Esq., at noon to-day. A collation followed the launch, at which were present Governor JOHN S. TYLER, Professor LONGFELLOW, and others, who made short addresses. Mrs. BARROW also repeated passages from "Hiawatha." The whole affair passed off very pleasantly and agreeably.

News from Texas.

The Galveston News, of the 18th, publishes a communication from which it appears that the Mexican citizens of Laredo have taken measures to avenge the Indian depredations near that place, and along the Rio Grande.

The same paper has a letter dated Grass Creek, Feb. 28, from which we take the following account of a brave fight made by a German wagoner against a party of Indians:

Three Germans residing at Fredericksburg had been hauling corn from the San Marcos. Returning, they went to the head of the Rio Blanco, about four miles from the first settlement on Grape Creek, on the 26th of February, and encamped in a small valley, about twenty-five yards from the creek.

Much morning, two of the wagoners went off to get their cattle; but the third, named Jacob Rhenmann, staid with the wagons.

They were not long gone about 15 minutes, when Rhenmann saw a large party of Indians coming down a mountain, in full speed, right towards him. When first observed by them they were about 300 yards from him, and he quickly commenced to defend the wagons and himself as long as possible; so he took the arms out of the wagons, consisting of a double-barrelled shot gun, loaded one barrel with a ball, the other with buckshot, a rifle well loaded, and a six-shooter loaded also.

The Indians came up to within about fifty yards, dismounted, got behind their horses, and shot a great many arrows at Rhenmann. He, in that time, had taken up the shot gun which did not fire, he took the rifle and shot one of the enemy; he fell, then got up, and ran tumbling to the creek, one of his brothers following him. Then the Indians came closer up to the wagons, on foot, and surrounded them; Rhenmann pulled out his six-shooter, and now began the close fight. He fired three times, and received two arrows, one through the left arm, the other went about six inches into his back. The brave fighter drove the enemy from the wagons, and soon went off to hunt up his companions, who were not far from the camp. One of them pulled the arrow out of his back, and all three went, rooting the wounded man several times, to the first house.

After Rhenmann had left the wagons the thieves came, cut up the wagon sheets, taking both guns, all provisions, money and blankets. It was too late to follow them, the same day, but the next day fourteen settlers of Grape Creek scoured the country, but on account of having no trailer their ride was to no purpose.

The Gonzales Inquirer says sugar, coffee and flour, are very scarce in that town, and hauling is almost impossible.

Ploughing is out of the question, and farming operations are several weeks behind, in comparison with last year.

A correspondent of the Victoria Advocate, writing from Refugio, says that many cattle and horses have perished, in consequence of the late cold weather, than during any previous Winter.

Company K of mounted rifles left San Antonio on the 14 inst., to range in the vicinity of Attascosa.

Capt. Burney's company left San Antonio on the 3d inst. for the Gadsden Purchase. The company numbered about 60 or 100, and have a good many wagons.

"Punta Maria" is the name of a new town built up near the confluence of the San Antonio and Cibolo rivers, in Karnes County, by Polish emigrants. The town contains one hundred and thirty families. The Texas says they are energetic, and are fast acquiring our language.

We regret to learn from sugar planters, who are now in this city, that from careful and thorough examination there is scarce a doubt but that nearly all the cane crop has been killed by the late severe Winter, following by the heavy and cold rains of February and thus far in March. The plant cane has also suffered severely. We may, therefore, make up our minds that the crop of next year, so far as Texas is concerned, will be the shortest for many years, if not the shortest ever known.

The ship J. W. Cheever, from New-York, and bark Ann Sarah, from Boston, arrived at Galveston Bar on the 19th inst., and were detained by the Health Officer on account of the vessels having sailed from infected ports. The ship Tonqua, from Boston, arrived off the Bar on the 19th.

Death of Mrs. Clayton.

SALEM, Ala., March 15, 1856.

MRS. CLAYTON, aged about eighty years of age, the property of P. H. CLAYTON, of Columbus, Ga., was recently killed by wounds inflicted upon her head and body by Mr. CLAYTON.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Signor ARDITI'S new opera, the "Spy," will be performed here to-night. No expense has been spared by the manager in the production of this piece, and every attention has been paid to the public rehearsal of the music. The opera will be submitted to the public under the most favorable circumstances. All that it now wanted is a crowded house.

WALLACK'S THEATRE.—Mr. J. W. WALLACK, Jun. will make his reappearance this evening as Benedick, in "Much Ado About Nothing." In this character he has no superior, and we cannot indicate a more agreeable evening's entertainment than that offered here in "Much Ado About Nothing," as produced here in a delightful fashion generally.

BURTON'S THEATRE.—Mr. CHAPMAN'S comedy of "Taking the Chances," and "That Blessed Baby" are the attractive attractions for this evening.

BROADWAY THEATRE.—The equestrian drama of "Mazeppa, or the Wild Horse of Tartary" will be produced here to-night, with Messrs. MYERS and MEDINA'S steed of honor in the principal parts. A few "humorous" will follow. "That Blessed Baby" will complete the evening's entertainments.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.—The well known comic pantomime of "The Green Monster" and the ballet of "Figaro" will be played to-night.

LAURA KEENE'S VARIETIES.—"Camille" has proved a success, and will be repeated to-night, with the burlesque of "Novelty."

NATIONAL THEATRE.—Three good pieces to-night:—"The Invasion of Ireland," "The Magic Barrel," and the burlesque "Cinder-Nelly."

BOWERY THEATRE.—This immense establishment reopens its portals to-night under the management of Mr. ROBERT JONES. Three good pieces will be performed—"Brian Boroihme," "The Factory Girl," and "The Dutch Girl of Genoa,"—lots of "girls" to attract an audience.

BARNUM'S MUSEUM.—The spectacle of "Aladdin" has proved pre-eminently attractive, and will be repeated every night this week, and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The NATIONAL ACADEMY OF DESIGN should not be forgotten; nor the DUSSELDORF GALLERY; nor the PANORAMA OF JAPAN; nor DR. ANDREW'S EGYPTIAN MUSEUM.

Musical and Dramatical Matters.

Mr. THEODORE EISFELD'S fifth classical Quartette—the last but one of the season we are sorry to say—came off on Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the religious restraint imposed on society by the Passion Week, there was a good attendance. The programme opened with a Beethoven selection from four Quartettes, by HAYDN, MOZART, BEETHOVEN and ONSLOW. These masters were probably selected to show the growth and development of the Quartette as a composition, and being presented together in this manner were entertaining and instructive. There is no sufficient reason why exhibitions of this character should not be more general in the Concert Room. No connection is preserved in the four movements of a Quartette, and no object aimed for except the production of certain effects by contrast—such as heightening the effect of a quick movement by preceding it with a slow one. Mr. EISFELD has chosen so that this can be done quite effectively by selection. Certainly, no Quartette of the season has contained so much variation of style and so much food for reflection as the one performed on Saturday night. The entire finale was filled with it—was that the first two movements were a little too fast, and a little too routine to form such a contrast as the productions of masters. The performance, as a whole, was very good, and the audience was large and appreciative.

Mr. THEODORE EISFELD has composed a song, written for the occasion, and, with Mr. MOLL, assisted in its performance. The composition displays all the sound musicianship for which Mr. PROCHOWSKI is distinguished. There is nothing trivial or common place in it, and there is a total absence of everything that appeals exclusively to the ear. The first movement (the principal theme of which struck us as somewhat Mendelssohnish and familiar) is worked up with scholarly ability, but, the repeat makes it too long. In the second movement the violin has a pretty romance, and the treatment of both violin and piano is fluent and elegant. The finale is a scherzo of the most capricious character, worked up with consummate fire, and bold and active as a young athlete. The Sonata is altogether too elaborate for appreciation at a single hearing; but the great excellence of the last movement makes us hope that we may hear it again. Its mechanical difficulties are immense, and the many peculiarities in its rhythmetic construction require nothing short of perfection in performance. Although Mr. MOLL played excellently in this as in the quartettes, he seemed to need a few more rehearsals. Why does not Mr. PROCHOWSKI play more often in public? He can always delight an audience. BURGMULLER'S quartette in F, of which we have already spoken, completed the programme. Miss HAZLEHURST assisted in the vocal department.

The "Wandering Minstrel" has evidently taken to the editorial line. In the Philadelphia Bulletin we find the following critical analysis of the plot of "Il Trovatore." It must be from his pen.

IL TROVATORE.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe,
Who had children a-plenty and not enough food.
One daughter she had, a gipsy by name,
Who went to a house where an infant she stole.

[Chorus in the Italian language, relative to the way she hooked it.]

Singing toeral, toledo and in dormere:
Allegro andanty and sempre amp,
O piano dorvere! mia madre you know,
With fata ricolo finesto & Co.

Now after they'd burst up the old gipsy mother,
The daughter came by with her own child and (other;
And her mazra burning, it woke up her ire,
And she slung the stole baby smack into the fire.

[Sizzling chorus, descriptive of the burning.]

Singing toeral, toledo and in dormire, &c.

Now when the poor baby was all of a bake,
She found out she'd burnt up her own by mistake;
And as she felt bad at the deed she had done,
She brought up the other and called him her son.

[Chorus in the barrow-tone style.]

Singing toeral, toledo, &c.

Now when the young man got to years of discretion,
He took up with music all for a profession.
Likewise a young woman for sweetheart he got,
And all her affections upon him she put.

[Same relish chorus in which is set forth the young woman's sentiment as expressed in a furrin language.]

Toeral, toledo, &c., &c.

There's a chap now, a Count, who comes into the song!
Who likewise loved this lady unceasing strong;
And many the time he her favors did ask,
They pulled out their weapons intending to tax.

[Spirited chorus, expressing a mortal combat which come very nigh coming off.]

Toeral, toledo, &c.

The next scene discovers Maurice, a gipsy,
With fellows who drink a great deal and eat tipsy,
And who hammer off carols, like jolly good fellows,
While their wives mind the fire and their sons blow the bellows.

[Hard work chorus, a la horse-shoe.]

Singing toeral, toledo, &c.

But alas! after all his fine singing and fighting
Which gave the occasion for all this fine writing;
The Count got Maurice locked up in the jug,
And held him as tight as a bug in a rug.

[Doleful chorus, regarding the hapless.]

Toeral, toledo, &c.

Then the lady came weeping and wailing around,
Where Maurice was lying all on the cold ground,
With the old gipsy woman, with ballads to sing,
To see if such things as they'd get to be hung.

[Same chorus with back up and scrape hooking down.]

Toeral, toledo, &c.

The Count came along—says the lady says she,
"If you'll let my love go, why then you may take me!"
So the Count he consented to open the door,
And one of the chalks called the bold trovatore.

[Trovatore—a cove vot sings. Printiance, I'm a very-tore, as you know by the following:]

Toeral, toledo, &c.

But the lady she thought "I'll never be his wife,
But I'll outwit the Count if it costs me his life."
So in came in; there she lay on her side,
And they found sure enough true by plain she'd died.

[Chorus expressive of pleon.]

Toeral, toledo, &c., &c.

Then the folks made a fire 'round the Count was so sure,
And in it they burnt up the gay trovatore;
Then the gipsy mother she came to life,
And I'm sorry to say that revolver burnt up your brother.

[Chorus expressing a grand family fry.]

Toeral, toledo, &c.

Among many other pieces of music just published by WILLIAM HALL & SON, there are four successes, which we commend to all players of taste and moderate capacity. "The Forget Me Not," a romance,

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

ARREST OF A SUSPECTED MURDERER.

A sailor named Michael Foster was yesterday committed to the Tombs, charged with the murder of James Reed, a shipmate, on the high seas. The homicide occurred on the 16th of January, on board of the ship Victoria, while on her passage from London to this port. The Victoria arrived from London on the 20th of December, and on twenty-one days out, an altercation occurred between Foster and Reed, in the course of which the latter received a blow on the head from a belaying pin, which caused his death in a few hours. Foster was arrested on the dock on the day of his arrival, and was committed to jail on the charge of manslaughter. Subsequently, however, the grand jury found a bill for murder in the first degree, and the prisoner was transferred to the Tombs. Foster is a native of Belfast, Ireland, and has lived in this country since childhood, and has followed the sea for the last thirty years of his life. He bears a reputable character for peaceable conduct.

ARREST OF A GAMBLING CELLAR.

Captain ACKERMAN, of the Ninth Ward, with some of his Police, made a descent on the gambling cellar into the cellar No. 45 Mott-street, on Saturday afternoon, and found there a large number of persons engaged in playing at various games of chance. Among those present were the proprietors of the cellar, who will be required to appear at the Court of Sessions this morning to answer. The police report that they found a number of persons in the cellar, and that on entering the premises they found that the doors had been closed, and that all the lights were out. The conduct of the inmates was only received with jeers. Upon entering the forecastle, on the day of the [illegible] he found that his chest had not only been removed from the place where it belonged, but that the contents of it had been cut and otherwise mutilated. He then said Foster to our Reporter, who had an interview with him in prison, "that there [illegible] I became enraged, as any man would, and struck him to make the man that did it. Reed then leaped at me and struck me between the eyes. We were then in the forecastle. I then struck Reed on the head with a belaying pin. This is the first time I ever struck a man with a belaying pin. I did not intend to kill him. I never had a knife in my hand. I [illegible] he was killed by the blow I struck him with the belaying pin. I [illegible] made by Michael Dempsey and myself, and [illegible] both of whom were eye-witnesses to the affair.

Foster's story does not exactly agree with that of Dempsey, as given by the latter, but it is not treated fairly in the formation of the opinion that the affair was a deliberate premeditated murder in place, and that all the circumstances connected with the conduct were only received with jeers. Yesterday's Evening Entertainments.

The Academy has already its place in the public mind. Its entertainments are already a success. Last night, in spite of the rain, the Academy was crowded. Every seat was occupied, and the aisles were filled with standing people. The entertainment was a varied one, and was enjoyed by all present. The Academy is a very useful institution, and we hope it will continue to flourish. It has already done much good, and will do more in the future.

Death of the Prue Heine—The Children of Bounce—Two Cannon of the Invalides—Algeria a Tiresyrety, &c.

Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Daily Times.

PARIS, Tuesday, March 4, 1856.

MISSY MISSY.

Soon there will be no more ports in France. All the ports will be filled up with sand, and there will be no more ships. Ships will be built in the interior of the country, and will sail on the rivers. It is a sad state of affairs, and we hope it will not last long.

Some days ago, at the funeral of Admiral Hamelin was passing the Boulevard, an American and Frenchman were standing in the crowd. Hamelin was a great favorite with the people, and his funeral was attended by a large crowd. The American and Frenchman were talking about the funeral, when the Frenchman said, "Hamelin was a great man, and we shall miss him." The American replied, "Yes, he was a great man, and we shall miss him."

Mrs. Crane, the celebrated tragedian of Astrakan, has been the rage of the town for the last week. She is a Russian, and is said to be worth a million of money. She is a widow, and has been married three times. She is a very fine looking woman, and is said to be very rich. She is a great favorite with the people, and is said to be going to marry a rich man.

THE SAN FRANCISCO RIOTS.

Terrible Shock to the Moral Feelings of the San Francisconians.

The "Other Side" of the Crime Discussed.

Correspondence of the New-York Daily Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1856.

"Sinners, day" again! and everybody running around during every day. "Sinners-day" down town among the Hottentots that is like washing-day at home. Everybody has been in a state of excitement for the last week, and the cause of it all is the Vigilance Committee. They have been hanging two men, and have driven away two more. They have also whipped a man, and have driven away two more. They have also whipped a man, and have driven away two more. They have also whipped a man

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE CONSULTATIONS.
DR. WATSON continues his professional treatment of those diseases to which he has devoted the last twenty years of his life, and which have made him the most successful physician of the present day. Those who are afflicted with any disease of a private nature, or exposure habit or indiscretion, while in early youth, which has brought on nervousness, debility, loss of memory, pains in the head, back, kidneys, &c., should call on DR. WATSON, who will guarantee a perfect cure in every case undertaken. Those who cannot call should write, describing their symptoms fully, and inclosing a remittance, when a cure will be forwarded by return of mail. Medicines sent to any part of the world. Secrecy guaranteed. Many years' success in the treatment of these diseases has given DR. WATSON a reputation which is unequaled by any physician in the United States. Those who have been unfortunate enough to have fallen into the hands of quacks, and have been humbugged out of their money, should call on DR. WATSON, who will cure them in a few days. Persons at a distance can be cured at home. There is no charge for consultation.
Many years' success in the Lock Hospital, Author of "The Cause and Cure," numerous plates, &c. Office No. 49 Walker-st., fourth door west of Broadway.

ROMAN EYE BALSAM.
FOR WEAK AND INFLAMED EYES.
This Balsam is the very best remedy that can be used for inflamed eyelids. It almost instantly relieves all irritation, and usually effects a complete cure after a few applications. For sale by A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Fulton-st., and by Druggists generally.

THE GREATEST SURGICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.—Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures every kind of humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.
He has tried it in over 1,100 cases, and never failed, except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over 300 certificates of its virtues, all within 20 miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils.
Three bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the eyes and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
Reader, I published only a thousandth portion of what is the remedy of Roxbury. Prepared only at 15 in every case. In case no cure will result from five, no cure will the case require. I have sold it both in 1851 and 1852, and have never heard a complaint. I have sold it because I knew it was a good thing. I have a thousand other things about this herb that appears to me marvellous, that is grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846; second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.
In conclusion of my private list of individual cases and cures I mention the discovery. I will state that in April, 1851, I applied it, and sold about six bottles per day. In April, 1852, I sold over a thousand bottles per day.
No chance of that ever happening—but the best you can say, and enough of it.
Prepared only at 15 Grand-st., side table opposite per day. Directions over it cause. Cannot specially; children from 4 to 9 years, two spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.
Mr. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of scrofula.
Manufactured by DONALD KENNEDY, No. 120 Warren-st., Roxbury, Mass. Price $1.
MARSH, OLYER & CO., No. 138 Greenwich-st.; BOYD & FAHY, Chambers-st.; R. G. WELLS & CO., Franklin-st.; McKESSON, ROBBINS & CO., No. 115 Maiden-lane; HAVILAND, HARRIS & HENRY, Cortlandt-st.; WARD, COLLINS & CO., Maiden-lane; and retailed by all respectable Druggists.
Reliable agents for New-York: OMAR H. RING, No. 192 Broadway; C. V. CLICKENER, No. 81 Barclay-st.; A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Fulton-st., and retailed by all respectable Druggists. Also, DR. WM. HAYES, No. 195 Fulton-st., Brooklyn; BARNES & PARKS, No. 304 Broadway.

REPRESENTATIVE IN AMERICA.
DR. BARROW, No. 31 Greene-st., near Canal, New-York, specially appointed by the proprietor and patentee of DR. LAMARTINE'S CELEBRATED EUROPEAN DISCOVERY—Protected by Royal Letters Patent of England, and secured by the seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie de Paris, and the Imperial College of Medicine, Vienna.
TRIBEMAR No. 1.—Is the remedy of general and local debility, loss of the vital power, premature decay, and all the ills of the sexual system, arising from age and abuse, &c. In the case of the Tribemar were universally adopted; all personal impediments vanish like magic before its influence, rendering it one invaluable to those entering the marriage state.
TRIBEMAR No. 2.—Completely and entirely eradicates all traces of those diseases which exposure and cubebs have so long been thought an antidote for, to the ruin of thousands in every portion of the population.
TRIBEMAR No. 3.—Is a certain and European remedy for the cure of gleet, gravel, stricture, and all diseases of the urinary organs, being the incurable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the Sarsaparilla in the world cannot remove.
TRIBEMAR No. 1, 2 and 3, are alike devoid of taste or smell, and may be administered to the most delicate female without her knowledge, or they may lay on the toilet table without their use being detected.
Sold in the cities at $5 each, or $15 per case in one for $5, which saves $2; and in $7 cases, whereby there is a saving of $6. Sold by all druggists throughout the United States, Canada, and the West Indies. Sole agent for the world by DR. A. BARROW, No. 31 Greene-st., near Canal, New-York. Consultation free. Office hours from 9 A. M. till 2 P. M., and from 4 to 8 P. M. (Sundays excepted) unless by previous appointment. No. 31 Greene-st., near Canal. Will remove on the 1st of May next to No. 197 Prince-st.

TO SUFFERING HUMANITY.—DR. HUNTER'S BOTANIC CORDIAL, the remedy for general and local Debility, Loss of Vital Power, Premature Decay, and all the distressing consequences arising from early indiscretion, sexual excesses, &c., is now within the reach of all, at a small cost, and salutary, beyond description, in youth, manhood and old age; indeed, the virile power was said to become impaired, even in the decline of life, if the Cordial were universally adopted: all physical impediments vanish like magic before its influence, thus rendering its use invaluable to those entering the marriage state.
DR. HUNTER'S NEW MEDICAL WORK, THE VADE MECUM, giving the London, Paris and Vienna treatment, 200 scenes, full of colored plates. Among its contents is the anatomy of the sexual system of the male and female, all their diseases and symptoms, from childhood to manhood, and their treatment, with plain directions for self-cure, rendering it impossible for any one to suffer from ignorance, or be deceived by quacks. Price, four dollars. To be had of DR. HUNTER himself, No. 3 Division-st., New-York, long and favorably known to the public. He may be consulted gratis at his old-established office, where he has practiced in one branch of medicine for the last seven years, and where he will be found more than any other person in the City, in many instances of persons considered incurable, some of which he has permission to refer to as heretofore. Charges moderate, and in all cases a cure guaranteed. Caution—My great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, that cures the disease without drying the poison in the blood, can only be had as above; it makes a speedy cure, without the least confinement, hindrance or exposure, or change in application to business. One bottle will cure the most inveterate case. Many are cured in a few hours; it entirely supersedes the dangerous and indiscriminate use of Mercury, which too often causes the inevitable destruction of the constitution.

DR. LAMONT'S PAMPHLET ON MEDICAL ADVISER AND MARRIAGE GUIDE, 20th edition, 400 pages, 100 elegant plates, price $1, sent free of postage to all parts of the world. Among the contents of the work may be found a treatise on the male and female, their anatomy and physiology, the reproduction of human life, their relative duties and qualifications; nervous debility, loss, and general, from excess and indiscretion in youth. The author's Paris and London treatment, from 10 to 2, and 6 to 8 P. M. No. 6 Reade-st., corner of Broadway, New-York. His book is also sold at No. 128 Broadway. We commend Dr. LAMONT to the afflicted.—Courier and Enquirer, Daily Sun, Daily Times, Sunday Dispatch, Sunday Mercury, Day Book, Sunday Transcript.

NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. JOHNSON, No. 14 Bond-st. (Chatham Square Building), may be consulted confidentially on all diseases requiring secrecy. His long experience of 24 years in the specialty of the profession enables him to treat promptly those who, from neglect or improper advice, are suffering from the malpractices of medical impostors, many of whom are to be found in all large cities. Dr. J. is a graduate of the University of the City of New-York. Dr. J.'s Medicine is purely vegetable, and contains no mercury or any thing else injurious to the constitution. Hours from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

MEDICAL OFFICE.—Dr. COOPER, No. 14 Bond-st., between Broadway and the Bowery, will be found at home for consultation at all hours. His remedies are adapted to every form of disease; even the weakest of them can take them without fear of discovery. His medicines for nervous debility, after removing the disease, leave the system in as good condition as before the disease made its appearance. Office hours from 9 o'clock A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M.

DR. SCHENCK.—Will be at home every day (Sundays excepted) from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., at his office, No. 15 North Fifth-st., Philadelphia, for the purpose of giving advice to those who may wish to consult him professionally. Dr. S. will be found at the above place and hours professionally, for the last time previous to his departure for Europe, which will take place in the course of April next.

CATARRH—CATARRH CURED.—By a new process, which never fails. No snuff or tobacco used. This remedy has permanently cured cases that have baffled the skill of our first physicians. Certificates shown and references given. A case warranted and charge moderate. R. WILKINSON, No. 26 8th-av., Basement.

FURNITURE.

NEW-YORK, March 14, 1856.

To Rev. Francis Vinton, D. D.:

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR: Participating in the great interest and pleasure manifested by the numerous hearers of your admirable and instructive lectures, "The Gentleman," on the occasion of its recent delivery at the Hall of the Mercantile Library, and fully impressed with the belief that such high-toned and attractive expositions of social and literary subjects will supply a desideratum in the circle of our public entertainments, powerfully tending to form a loftier and nobler public sentiment, a purer current morality, and a more refined taste and cultivated social bearing in the community we are induced to respectfully and cordially unite in inviting you to afford us an early opportunity of again listening to your eloquent unfolding of the rules and similar themes of general interest.

With assurances of our high personal regard, and lively appreciation of the value of your effective labors in this department of public instruction, both to ourselves and to all who may enjoy the pleasure of listening to them.

We remain sincerely yours,

NEW-YORK, March 15, 1856.

To James E. Ray, George Good, William Gerry, Committee; Albert Gallatin, David Stewart, and others:

GENTLEMEN: Your note requesting me to repeat for the second time my lecture, "The Gentleman," and to read other lectures "on similar themes," in New-York, is both unexpected and flattering.

Besides your own persuasions, you have enforced your request by many names of high repute among your fellow citizens.

With great diffidence I accede to your joint desire, and I will begin the experiment by repeating "The Gentleman," on Tuesday evening, March 25.

I remain, your obedient servant,

FRANCIS VINTON.

The first lecture will be delivered at the Hall of the Mercantile Library, Astor-place, on TUESDAY EVENING, March 25, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Tickets, 50 cents. Can be had at the drug stores of HEGEMAN, CHASE & Co., Broadway; at GEERY'S, Broadway and Fourteenth-street; of VAN NORDEN & RUSS, No. 45 Wall-street; and at the door on the evening.

Diseases of the Lungs—Notice.

Dr. ROBERT HUNTER begs to inform his patients in Philadelphia that he has opened an establishment in that city under the professional charge of Dr. F. Metcalf, for the special treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs.

Dr. MORRIS is a member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, and has enjoyed, both in that city and New-York, long and great experience in the treatment of pulmonary affections.

Dr. HUNTER would also state for the information of his patients residing in Baltimore and Washington, that Dr. JOHN BLESSARD WILLIAMS will hereafter be connected with the Baltimore office.

These arrangements have been rendered necessary by the growth of the practice in Philadelphia and Baltimore, and by the retirement of Dr. JAMES MORRIS in consequence of ill health. Patients in those cities will, in future, enjoy not only all the advantages of Dr. HUNTER'S advice, but the additional benefit of the personal care and supervision of skilful and accomplished resident physicians.

In the Stethoscope and Journal of Diseases of the Chest for February an extended explanation of Dr. HUNTER'S views and treatment will be found, with much additional information, which should be read by every one predisposed to or suffering from any affection of the throat or lungs. The Stethoscope can be procured of the publishers, Messrs. SEXTON & CO., Astor House. Persons residing at a distance, who are prevented by the state of their health, the weather, or other considerations from visiting the City for advice, can be prescribed for by letter. In such cases, it is necessary that the patient should carefully describe his present symptoms and the past history of his disease. To render such description more exact, a list of questions has been prepared, which will be sent, with a specimen copy of the Stethoscope, on application to either of the following addresses:

NEW-YORK—Dr. ROBERT HUNTER, No. 823 Broadway.

PHILADELPHIA—Dr. F. METCALF, No. 202 Walnut-street.

BALTIMORE—Dr. J. B. WILLIAMS, No. 52 North Charles-street.

N.B.—Dr. HUNTER may be consulted personally as heretofore, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., daily.

NEW-YORK, March 5th, 1856.

MONDAY, March 24—A. M.

The course of the Money and Stock Markets, through the past week, was to increased activity, without material change of rates in the former, and better prices in the latter. General trade was active, particularly so among the Dry Goods Jobbers, who are making larger sales to the interior than last season, and among the Importers, who continue in liberal receipts from Europe. There was more done in Cotton than the previous week, and prices firm both for Cotton on the spot, and on sample sales for shipments in transitu between the Southern ports and Liverpool. Foreign Exchanges have been steady in rates, inclining to dullness in demand until Friday, when nearly half a million in English and French bills were taken on account of parties interested in the Mexican Indemnity payment. The terms for Sterling are 109⅜@109⅝; Francs 5.18¾@5.17½. Money, on demand loan, 7 ₱ cent., and on paper longer than the dates usually current at Bank, 8@9 ₱ cent. The Stock Exchange showed some animation about the middle of the week, after the arrival of the English steamer, and closed steady on Saturday, though not at full prices. The following is the

The Stockholders in Hudson River Road were

Rents, despite the Credit Mobilier, and for English 3 ₱ cent. Consols, in the face of the extravagant dividends promised from Joint Stock Banking. Our own established State and Railway Funds are in little danger of being wholly neglected, either in England or on the Continent, because of the fresh brood of Joint Stock schemes in London or the new and hazardous projects of Credit Banks at Vienna, Berlin and Bremen. Of this, we have already some assurances in letters by the last steamer from the Continent, in which the United States are spoken of by contrast as one of the most conservative countries, financially, in the world, (who would have thought it, two years ago?) and even our Railways as being safer and mananged with far more integrity of purpose than the mad schemes of speculation originating in France a few years ago, and now extending, with the near prospect of peace, all over the Continent; while our Schuyler frauds have been thrice eclipsed by the Davidsons and Gordons, Sir John Pauls and Sadliers of Old England.

The Savannah drawn bills to which we referred on Friday as being in trouble in France have not been returned, but, as far as they have fallen due, have been paid, as we understand, and the remainder will be.

The Rock Island Railroad Company have declared a half-yearly cash dividend of 5 ₱ cent., payable on or after 12th April.

We understand that Mr. S. B. WHITE has resigned the Cashiership of the Grocers' Bank; the resignation to take effect on the 1st April.
